Dear Mr. Felitti:

On 9/19/91, I called you to ask about a letter (dated 9/4/91) sent to our company by your office concerning a Great Lakes Asphalt Site. The opening paragraph stated: "You previously have been notified...". In our conversation, I requested a copy of such previous letter, since we had no record of any previous notifications.

Then this week, a memorandum regarding this site arrived from the Shea & Gould law firm. As I had not heard from your office since our talk of 9/19/91, I contacted Shea & Gould and received a copy of an EPA letter to another company, which may be similar to your "original" notification about this site.

At this time as indicated in my call of 9/19/91 to you, Yenkin-Majestic has no knowledge of any liability regarding our company and the site you have classified as Great Lakes Asphalt. If there is information that you have as to our company and this site, kindly let me know. Otherwise, we will presume our company is not involved.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,
